

Trading
Boundaries

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

World Acclaimed Artist Roger Dean to Showcase Gallery at Cropredy Festival 2023

The Cropredy Festival, one of the most anticipated music events of the year, is proud to announce the presence of world-acclaimed artist Roger Dean and his gallery at the festival's 2023 edition. The renowned artist, famous for his breathtaking album covers and visionary artwork, will bring his unique artistic vision to the festival, captivating audiences with a stunning display of his iconic creations.

Roger Dean's appearance at Cropredy Festival 2023 is set to create an exceptional fusion of art and music, enriching the festival experience for attendees. Dean's instantly recognisable style, characterised by fantastical landscapes, intricate details, and vibrant colours, has earned him global recognition and provided the artistic landscape to many peoples lives. Showcased by official Roger Dean Gallery Trading Boundaries, this is set to be a fantastic opportunity to view and purchase artwork on site.

Cropredy Festival, known for its eclectic lineup and vibrant atmosphere, presents the perfect platform for Dean to showcase his unparalleled artistic talent. Festival-goers will have the exclusive opportunity to immerse themselves in a world of imagination, as Dean's gallery becomes a focal point for visual inspiration throughout the event. His captivating works have graced the album covers of legendary bands such as Yes, Asia, and Uriah Heep, becoming iconic symbols of the progressive rock era.

"I am thrilled to be a part of the Cropredy Festival 2023," "It is an exceptional platform to showcase my artwork and connect with music enthusiasts who appreciate the relationship between art and music. I look forward to engaging with the audience and sharing the stories behind my creations." RD.

Cropredy Festival organisers share in the excitement of hosting Roger Dean and his gallery. "We are honoured to have Roger Dean join us at Cropredy Festival 2023," said the festival spokesperson Gareth. "His artistry has influenced generations of music lovers, and his visual representations have become synonymous with some of the greatest rock albums in history. We are confident that his presence will add a new dimension to the festival, elevating the overall experience for our attendees." Cropredy Festival 2023 will take place from 10th - 12th August at Cropredy, Oxfordshire. With a lineup that spans various genres, including rock, folk, and blues, the festival promises to provide an unforgettable experience for music aficionados. Bands confirmed are Fairport Convention, Nile Rogers & Chic, 10cc plus many more.

Roger Dean's gallery will be a prominent feature of the festival, allowing fans to engage with his art in a live setting.

For more information about Roger Dean and his artwork, please visit <https://www.rogerdean.com>. Tickets for Cropredy Festival 2023 can be purchased through <https://www2.theticketfactory.com/fairport-convention/online/> and updates on the festival can be found on the official website at <https://www.fairportconvention.com>.

About Roger Dean:

Roger Dean is a world-acclaimed artist known for his visionary artwork and iconic album covers. His unique style, characterised by fantastical landscapes and vibrant colours, has made him one of the most influential artists in the music industry. Dean's artwork has graced the covers of numerous rock albums, including those of Yes, Asia, and Uriah Heep, becoming synonymous with the progressive rock genre.

About Cropredy Festival:

Cropredy Festival is an annual music event held in Oxford. Known for its diverse lineup and vibrant atmosphere, the festival attracts music lovers from around the world. The festival showcases an array of genres, including rock, folk, and blues, providing a platform for established and emerging artists to captivate audiences with their performances.

Press Contact:

Jennifer Ross

Marketing Manager

Jenny@tradingboundaries.com

01825 790200

